Attorney Boutros addressed the Court re: the Emergency Motion of Certain Non-Party News Organizations to Modify Order Filed January 31, 2005 re: Jury Venire. Attorney Boutros advised the Court that the Court's modified decorum order that was previously released addressed all the most immediate concerns.

Attorneys Boutros and Sanger addressed the Court re: Motion Requesting Immediate Public Access to Blank Jury Questionnaire Forms and to the Completed Forms Submitted by Prospective Jurors. The Court advised Counsel that the Blank Jury Questionnaire Form was previously released to the media. The Court orders that the Court shall review each completed questionnaire and initially redact claims of confidentiality and additions such as Juror names; that the redacted questionnaires shall be released; that Assistant Court Administrator, Darrell Parker, shall work with the Media Coordinator and provide one copy of the questionnaire to the media; that the Media Coordinator shall then be responsible to disseminate the released questionnaire.

Court and Counsel further discussed the admonishment that will be given to the Prospective Jurors by the Court.

The Court further orders that timelines for all motions shall follow the schedule previously ordered by the Court; that the Court will set a date for all motions to be heard and advise Counsel at a later time as to when the motions will be heard.

At 8:55 A.M. Court adjourned.

At 9:35 A.M. with the Court and Prospective Jurors present at the Maldonado Center, in the absence of Counsel and the Defendant, trial continued.

The Court admonished the Prospective Jurors and ordered them to return on February 14, 2005 at 8:30 A.M. for further Jury selection.

At 9:40 P.M. Court adjourned.
