SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA FOR THE COUNTY OF SANTA BARBARA

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF	Case No.: 1133603
CALIFORNIA,	Order for Release of Redacted Documents
Plaintiff, vs.	[Opposition to District Attorney's Motion to Exclude Any Reference by Defense to Any Alleged [Redacted]]
MICHAEL JACKSON, Defendant.

The reducted form of the Defense's Opposition to District Attorney's Motion to Exclude Any Reference by Defense to Any Alleged [Reducted] attached to this order shall be released and placed in the public file. The court finds that there is more material in the motion that should be reducted than that contained in the proposed reducted version. The unreducted originals shall be maintained conditionally under seal pending the next motion hearing, date to be announced.

(Motion, page 1.) Defense counsel will follow the Evidence Code. Defense counsel will limit its inquiries regarding to come that are relevant to this case and will not question her regarding that are not relevant. An order forbidding defense counsel from any inquiry into would be improper.

The exclusion of such relevant evidence threatens to deprive Mr. Jackson of his federal and state constitutional rights to a fair trial, due process of law, and equal protection pursuant to the Fifth, Sixth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and Article 1, Sections 7, 15 and 24 of the California Constitution.

ARGUMENT

I.

JANE DOE'S ROMANTIC AFFAIRS ARE RELEVANT TO HER FRAUDULENT ACTIVITIES

During the exact time period in which she now claims to have been held hostage. Jane

Doe was engaged in a romantic relationship with the period. Despite her claims to the contrary in the videotape recorded by the period, and under penalty of perjury in an application for welfare. Supported Ms. Doe and her family financially. During the relevant time period, Ms. Doe did not want to jeopardize this financial attrangement, but, at the same time, wanted to set up a similar, but more lucrative, arrangement with Michael Jackson or one of the men around him. While attempting to secure such an arrangement, Ms. Doe had a telephone conversation with that caused him to become concerned. While talking to caused to call the police department. While the District Attorney will almost certainly claim that this event demonstrates that Ms. Doe was under duress while at Neverland, there is a more likely scenario. Ms. Doe did not want certain people at Neverland to believe that she was in a committed relationship with the because she wanted to be seen as available so that she could pursue a similarly profitable romantic relationship.

This

In fact, during the very evening that felt she would not talk to him she was in town, unattended by anyone, seeking beauty treatments.

This information is relevant because it explains Inne Doe's behavior during the relevant time period. The District Attorney plans to argue that her conduct is consistent with being held captive. The evidence supports a very different interpretation of her behavior and defense counsel may properly argue such an interpretation.

There is also evidence that during and after the time periods she now claims she was detained by Mr. Jackson's employees.

Furthermore, a police report dated February 23, 2004, contains a statement that Jane Doe

CONCLUSION

For the above stated reasons, the Court should deny the District Attorney's motion.
