21 I. INTRODUCTION

22 Pursuant to California Rules of Court, R. 234.1 and 243.4, Respondents George Lopez
23 and Ann Serrano Lopez make this Application for a Court Order that Respondents' Opposition to 24 Defendant Michael Jackson's ("Defendant Jackson") Ex Parte Application for an Order that a 25 Subpoena Duces Tecum issue, supporting declarations, exhibits, and proposed order be filed
26 under seal. This Application also requests that any hearing on Defendant Jackson's Ex Parte
27 Application be held In Camera. Respondents further request that the Court order that Defendant 28 Jackson's Ex Parte Application also be filed under seal.

1 II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

2 Respondents George Lopez and Ann Serrano Lopez have filed with the Court their 3 Opposition to Defendant's Jackson Ex Parte Application for an Order that a Subpoena Duces
4 Tecum issue. The Opposition is made on the grounds that neither George Lopez nor Ann Lopez 5 have any relevant testimony or evidence to offer, are not material witnesses, are not proper 6 impeachment witnesses, and that Defendant Jackson has failed to carry his burden by his 7 exclusive reliance on inadmissible hearsay, inadmissible double hearsay, and other evidentiary
8 flaws contained in the declarations of Defendant Jackson's defense attorneys submitted in support
9 of his Ex Parte Applications.

10 As set forth more fully in the Ex Parte Application, Opposition and the previously filed 11 Motion to Quash Subpoenas of which Respondents have requested that the Court take judicial 12 notice of, George Lopez is a well-known comedian, television and motion picture actor, and star
13 of the ABC television network weekly program entitled "The George Lopez Show." As this Court 14 is well aware, Defendant Jackson is an international, mega-celebrity, and the trial in the People v.
15 Michael Joe Jackson case has drawn, and is expected to draw unprecedented and international 16 media publicity. Sealing the record and allowing for this hearing to be held In Camera, will 17 prevent the media from seeking to speculate before the "court of public opinion" if the Ex Parte 18 Application, its Opposition, and/or its ruling is "good" or "bad" for the defense or prosecution in 19 the case, thereby preventing any undue influence on prospective jurors and avoiding potential 20 prejudice to the minor, alleged victim, Defendant Jackson, or the prosecution.

21 Allowing the public to inspect the Ex Parte Application, Opposition, and/or Ruling will 22 unjustifiably thrust George Lopez and his wife, Ann into the eye of a media storm, resulting in 23 harm and prejudice to George Lopez and his wife Ann through potentially erroneous speculation 24 and interpretation by legal analysts concerning the Ex Parte Application, while making Mr. and 25 Mrs. Lopez fodder for the press, the tabloid community, and the public at large, all at the expense 26 of George Lopez, his career and his public image.

1 III. ARGUMENT

2 CA Rules of Court, Rule 243.1(d) holds, in pertinent part that:

3 “The court may order that record be filed under seal only if it
4 expressly finds facts that establish: (1) There exists an overriding
5 interest that overcomes the right to public access to the record; (2) 6 the overriding interest supports sealing the record; (3) a substantial 7 probability exists that the overriding interest will be prejudiced if 8 the record is not sealed; (4) the proposed sealing is narrowly 9 tailored; and (5) No less restrictive means exist to achieve the 10 overriding interest.

11 In this instance, and as set forth in George Lopez’s Declaration in support of his Motion to 12 Quash, Mr. Lopez’s celebrity status will only add to the unprecedented media scrutiny which is 13 expected to surround the trial of People v. Michael Joe Jackson. This level and type of public 14 scrutiny is not substantive, and is not in the interest of justice.

15 On the other hand, there exists an overriding interest in avoiding potential prejudice to 16 either the minor alleged victim, the prosecution, or Defendant Jackson, from media and tabloid 17 speculation that may unduly influence the “court of public opinion” and/ or prospective jurors.
18 The interest of justice in securing a fair adjudication of the merits of this case, and avoiding 19 prejudice to either the minor alleged victim, the prosecution, and/or Defendant Jackson overrides
20 the de minimus, substantive value of public interest in the celebrity status of George Lopez and/or 21 his wife Ann. Absent maintaining the Ex Parte Application under seal, and having the hearing of 22 the Motions In Camera, there is significant potential for Mr. and Mrs. George Lopez being 23 exposed to severe harm and prejudice through reckless and scandalous speculation by the media 24 and tabloid press regarding what connection George Lopez and/or his wife might have to the 25 minor, alleged victim , the prosecution, or to Defendant Jackson and his alleged activities, which 26 when reported would sell the largest volume of newspapers or tabloid magazines.

27 Additionally, the proposed sealing of the Ex Parte Application, Opposition, and/or Ruling 28 is narrowly tailored and there is no less restrictive means to achieve the overriding interest, as the 29 motion cannot be redacted in such a way that the public cannot discover who the identity of the 30 Respondents.

IV. CONCLUSION

Based on the foregoing, Respondents respectfully request that this Court order that the Defendant Jackson's Ex Parte Application, Respondents' Opposition, supporting declaration, exhibits, and proposed order be filed under seal and that the hearing on this Ex Parte Application be held In Camera.
