

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA, COUNTY OF SANTA BARBARA STREET ADDRESS: 312-C East Cook Street MAILING ADDRESS: P. O. Box 5369 CITY AND ZIP CODE: Santa Maria, CA 93456-5369 BRANCH NAME: Cook Division	FOR COURT USE ONLY FILED SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA COUNTY OF SANTA BARBARA OCT 19 2004
People of the State of California v. Michael Joe Jackson	GARY M. BLAIR, Executive Officer BY Carrie L. Wagner CARRIE L. WAGNER, Deputy C.
FINDINGS AND ORDER RE SEALING MOTION COMPELLING DISCLOSURE OF INFORMANT'S IDENTITY, ETC., OPPOSITION AND REPLY THERETO	CASE NUMBER: 1133603

On October 4, 2004, Defendant filed a Motion Compelling Disclosure of Informant's Identity etc. under conditional seal. The court's redacted version was released on October 8, 2004. On October 8, 2004, the DA filed its Response under conditional seal. A redacted version of the Response was released on October 12, 2004. On October 12, 2004, the Defendant filed a Reply to Prosecution's Response. On October 14, 2004, the court granted the motion to seal the documents.

The Court makes the following findings:

The moving papers in unredacted form quote passages at length from sealed search warrant affidavits. The redacted material identifies potential witnesses in this proceeding as well as the complaining witness and his family by name. In addition, it identifies potential items of evidence, the admissibility of which has yet to be determined. The moving papers included copies of the sealed search warrants themselves as exhibits. These exhibits were redacted. The Response included the names of the confidential informants. These were redacted. The Reply included the names of the confidential informants. These were redacted.

In this case, protection of the Defendant's right to a fair trial and protection of the identity of the minor complaining witness and his family overcomes the right of public access to the record. A substantial probability exists that those interests will be prejudiced if the record is not sealed as requested. The intensity of the media coverage in this case is unprecedented. Each court hearing is thoroughly reported and exhaustively analyzed by the media. It is substantially probable that if the evidence expected to be given at trial were to be released pretrial, it would be similarly reported and analyzed. The sealing order is necessary to maintain the integrity of the available jury pool by limiting its exposure to the expected evidence and testimony pretrial and to prevent exposure to inadmissible items of evidence. The Court has consistently held that because of the pervasive media coverage in this case, the Defendant's right to a fair trial outweighs public access. Those findings are relevant here and incorporated by reference. [See Findings and Order re: Motion for Protective Order, filed January 23, 2004 and Findings and Order re: Sealing of Search Warrant Materials, filed January 23, 2004]

There are no less restrictive means to protect those interests. The extraordinary circumstances present in this case overcome the presumption that cautionary admonitions and instructions to the jury pool would have a curative effect. It is far more desirable to avoid the prejudice in the first instance than to hope to identify unaffected jurors later.

The Court acknowledges that its order must be narrowly tailored to accommodate the maximum public disclosure. Redacted versions of these documents were released as noted above.
