People of the State of California v. Michael Joe Jackson	GARY M. BLAIR, Executive Officer  Carrie L. Wagner  CARRIE L. WAGNER, Deputy Clerk
FINDINGS AND ORDER RE SEALING PRIVILEGE LOG FOR ITEMS SEIZED PURSUANT TO SW 5135	CASE NUMBER: 1133603

On October 25, 2004, Mr. Jackson filed a Privilege Log for items seized pursuant to SW 5135. The court placed the Privilege Log under conditional seal. No redacted version is released or contemplated. On November 4, 2004, the court granted the motion to seal the document.

The Court makes the following findings:

The Privilege Log not only describes in some detail the documents that were seized pursuant to SW 5135 that the Defendant asserts is privileged, but it actually attaches those documents for an in camera inspection by the court. Sealing is necessary to preserve the Defendant's right to assert the privilege. No redacted version is possible.

In this case, protection of the Defendant's right to a fair trial and protection of the identity of the minor complaining witness and his family overcomes the right of public access to the record. A substantial probability exists that those interests will be prejudiced if the record is not sealed as requested. The intensity of the media coverage in this case is unprecedented. Each court hearing is thoroughly reported and exhaustively analyzed by the media. It is substantially probable that if the evidence expected to be given at trial were to be released pretrial, it would be similarly reported and analyzed. The sealing order is necessary to maintain the integrity of the available jury pool by limiting its exposure to the expected evidence and testimony pretrial and to prevent exposure to inadmissible items of evidence. The Court has consistently held that because of the pervasive media coverage in this case, the Defendant's right to a fair trial outweighs public access. Those findings are relevant here and incorporated by reference. [See Findings and Order re: Motion for Protective Order, filed January 23, 2004 and Findings and Order re: Sealing of Search Warrant Materials, filed January 23, 2004]

There are no less restrictive means to protect those interests. The extraordinary circumstances present in this case overcome the presumption that cautionary admonitions and instructions to the jury pool would have a curative effect. It is far more desirable to avoid the prejudice in the first instance than to hope to identify unaffected jurors later.

The Court acknowledges that its order must be narrowly tailored to accommodate the maximum public disclosure. As noted above, redactions are not possible.
