Box 5369 CITY AND ZIP CODE: Santa Maria, CA 93456-5369 BRANCH NAME: Cook Division	FOR COURT USE ONLY FILED SUPERIOR COURT of CALIFORNIA COUNTY of SANTA BARBARA  DEC - 2 2004  GARY M. BLAIR, Executive Officer BY Carril L. Wagner CARRIL L. WAGNER, Deputy Clerk
People of the State of California v. Michael Joe Jackson
FINDINGS AND ORDER RE SEALING MOTION TO MODIFY          TEAL ORDER AND OXMAN DECLARATION FILED IN          OPPOSITION	CASE NUMBER: 1133603

On November 18, 2004, the DA filed a Motion to Modify Teal Order under conditional seal. A redacted version was released on November 19, 2004. On November 23, 2004, the defense filed the Oxman Declaration under conditional seal. The court's redacted version of his declaration was released on November 24, 2004. On November 29, 2004, the court granted the motion to seal these documents.

The Court makes the following findings:

The Motion in its unredacted form identifies the complaining witness and his family by name as well as potential witnesses at trial. In addition, the Motion identifies entities that received subpoenas from the Defense, the confidentiality of which the court sought to protect with its Protective Order Regarding Defendant's Subpoenas Duces Tecum order issued on July 9, 2004. The Oxman Declaration provides great detail about the Defense's need and intended use for the documents sought by the subpoenas.

In this case, protection of the Defendant's right to a fair trial and protection of the identity of the minor complaining witness and his family overcomes the right of public access to the record. A substantial probability exists that those interests will be prejudiced if the record is not sealed as requested. The intensity of the media coverage in this case is unprecedented. Each court hearing is thoroughly reported and exhaustively analyzed by the media. It is substantially probable that if the evidence expected to be given at trial were to be released pretrial, it would be similarly reported and analyzed. The sealing order is necessary to maintain the integrity of the available jury pool by limiting its exposure to the expected evidence and testimony pretrial and to prevent exposure to inadmissible items of evidence. The Court has consistently held that because of the pervasive media coverage in this case, the Defendant's right to a fair trial outweighs public access. Those findings are relevant here and incorporated by reference. [See Findings and Order re: Motion for Protective Order, filed January 23, 2004 and Findings and Order re: Sealing of Search Warrant Materials, filed January 23, 2004]

There are no less restrictive means to protect those interests. The extraordinary circumstances present in this case overcome the presumption that cautionary admonitions and instructions to the jury pool would have a curative effect. It is far more desirable to avoid the prejudice in the first instance than to hope to identify unaffected jurors later.

The Court acknowledges that its order must be narrowly tailored to accommodate the maximum public disclosure. Redacted versions of these documents were released as noted above.
